About Oh men the women here are so out of my league theres no hope for me so why not go and spend my time exploring the seedy bars and stuff in the dungeon dungeon ive been trying to break down my fear by increasing my knowledge of the gay male culture and to see if i can even get laid. Then i found this blog or this site which is about being a closeted male who just wants to experience sex and the adventure that it brings. So im starting here and making my way to the bar with you all.A New York police officer with no body camera captured a cop pulling a gun on two young boys in the street during a confrontation after the cops found two unlicensed guns in the boys' backpack. The video, which went viral Thursday night, shows two boys, 13 and 15 years old, in a dispute with police on a street in the Bronx. The boys had walked into the police department, which they were going to to retrieve their non-functioning gun that was thrown away after they were busted in their attempt to use it. While the boys were there, a group of men suspected of being the two boys' 'friends' started to pick a fight with a bystander, with the cops having to step in and break it up. One of the men who was fighting walked over to the cop and confronted the officers about the two boys, accusing them of picking on him. Last Sunday, the boys and another man were walking in a park when police noticed the boys were carrying two unlicensed guns. The guns, which are recovered frequently in New York City, were tossed into a garbage can. A police officer saw the boys and asked them if they owned the guns. The boys answered yes, then retrieved the guns from the trash can and handed them over to the officer. The 13-year-old told the officer the other gun belonged to his mother, and the 15-year

What's New In?

Extended Task Manager is a free PC optimization utility that shows all running applications and tasks on the system and lets you view details such as process status, CPU, memory, disk I/O, network usage, startup programs, and process priority. It also allows you to kill unwanted applications, find orphaned processes, list all open file locations, monitor the Internet connection status, and many more. What's new: - Our new Disk I/O chart shows you which applications are currently active and using the most disk I/O resources. The list also provides the total amount of disk access by each process and by each application over time. - The new Process Network Usage chart will help you see all processes currently connected to the network and from which IP address they are connecting. The chart also shows how much data each process is downloading or uploading. - Users can now view which applications are currently accessing an open file. This helps users find and kill processes that are trying to modify or open files they don't have access to. - The Windows process priority rating was improved to show the priority of processes from high to low. - A new settings tab lets you monitor Internet connection for a specific user. - The progress bar in the free version now has an option to have it visible as long as the task is running. Compatibility: - Extended Task Manager supports Windows 2000, Windows XP, Windows Server 2003, Windows Vista, Windows 7, Windows 8, and Windows 8.1. Applying the changes: To apply the changes made in the installer, right-click the.msu file and select Run As Administrator. Notes: - The included key in the installer's main folder allows you to unlock all features in Extended Task Manager. - By default, Extended Task Manager displays a message box in which you are asked if you want to restart your computer after the changes are applied. Reference: The moment I saw this, I knew I had to make it. My daughter kept asking me to make her a pina colada cupcake and with the festival being the same day, I had to get to it. The hardest part was finding the cupcake pans that were most similar to the pictures on the packaging of the Pina Colada Cupcake. These were very difficult to find, and when I did find them
