Starting Aug. 12, flyers traveling to Canada or Mexico on Air Canada, American or United will no longer be able to use the domestic counter, the AP reports. American Airlines briefly reopened that counter after acquiring the non-unionized fixed-wing flight operator in 2017. But the countereffect soon proved to be a bad business move, according to the news agency, as passengers wanted to book directly with the airlines rather than go through a third-party. Additionally, the post office says it won't be repurchasing the hotel rooms that it recently took over at the airport. The agency that owns the former US Airways counter also shut down its fast-food restaurant in August. LaGuardia Airport is the second-busiest airport in the country. It handled more than 48 million passengers in 2018, the AP reported. So it was inevitable that the Republican-controlled House of Representatives would engage in much more aggressive oversight than the Democrats did when they had control. When first-term Democratic House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and Democratic Chair of the Oversight and Reform Committee Elijah Cummings holdovers from the prior Congress, Democrats were forced to approve the budgets for multiple government agencies and to pass major legislation, the most significant being a $4 trillion infrastructure spending package. They also needed to use
