The French team took pole position with a lap of 3m 47.127s set by Kevin Abbring in the #5 AER Racing Porsche 911 GT3 RSR. Nico Menzel occupies second in the #1 YMR Motorsport by VIR World Porsche 911 GT3 RSR, while the #39 Black Falcon Mercedes-AMG GT3 rounds out the top three. The reigning Supercup champion - Abbring, who was initially fifth fastest in qualifying but had a 10-minute stop-go penalty and consequently dropped to sixth place - will start on the reverse of the grid. Abbring, however, believes that to claim a good result from the start and making a move on the rest of the field, it is necessary to qualify on pole.

Until fairly recently, this land was the sole domain of serious camping and tramping. Today, despite rampant urbanisation, it remains one of the country's most under-explored wilderness areas and draws an appreciative crowd of tourists from the flatterer's cloth who know that we are grateful for the lack of pounding surf.
