ABOUT GOLDEN COMELETES: Players who play the game will receive a special in-game item called the Tarnished Medal upon the game's release. Upon the game's release, a special commemoration event will be held for both the purchase of the game and the purchase of the medal. The medal will be applied for players to receive a special in-game item, the Tarnished Medal. The medal will be distributed by using a special account function ("Tarnished Medal Account"). When you purchase the medal, you will receive the "Tarnished Medal Account" depending on the number of times you purchase the medal. At that time, a reward for having the medal will be distributed. By acquiring more Tarnished Medals, you will receive a reward at a rate of one medal for every five Tarnished Medals. Players can acquire more Tarnished Medals through the "Tarnished Medal Account". Players can exchange the Tarnished Medals for the Tarnished Medal Account via "golden comelettes". On the game's release, the game's in-game currency "golds" will be used in exchange for these "golden comelettes".
