Head AS Code is a visual novel set in a dystopian world where you are a low level soldier in a pixelated army. Your training is done by text, one, or two line dialogue boxes that only show up once a day at random intervals. Your only guide is the interface shown in the upper right of your monitor and the small, sarcastic voice that follows you around. You must navigate a dystopian world of corrupted AI, violent pixelated soldiers, and cryptic interfaces. This game is not a standard visual novel. Our goal was to have unique dialogue that you can't experience anywhere else, so the story would stand on its own. The soundtrack is 17, dark electronic tracks with strong contrast and interesting melodies. The songs were intended to be exciting and unexpected. As the game is set in a dystopian, hellish future, with societies destroyed and AI taking over humanity, we thought it was fitting to have a background resembling hell. Q: Get different array from json using Spring MVC Rest Controller How can i get different array from json using Rest Controller. I know how to get that result if i have a single array. My code: @RequestMapping(value = "/api/item/{item_id}", method = RequestMethod.GET) public @ResponseBody MyModel getItemById(@PathVariable("item_id") int item_id) { MyModel model = myService.getItemById(item_id); return model; } And model: public class MyModel { private String name; private int[] price = new int[2]; //getters and setters } And the data base are as: MyDataBase ItemId|ItemName ----- 1 Android 2 iPhone ----- And i want to get it as response in json: [{"name":"Android","price":[12000,9000]},{"name":"iPhone","price":[10000,10000]}] I'm using Spring 4.3.3, Spring Data 1.4.3.RELEASE Thanks. As the World's Number 1 Gambling Game, Leaden needs more than just a pretty face... In Head AS Code, control the game's four main characters and use their unique skills to clear the game's sixteen levels of undead killers, outwit the game's elaborate traps, and collect the necessary cyber chips to save Leaden and his girlfriend. The Original Game Head AS Code Soundtrack Activation Code: The official soundtrack to the visually stunning Head AS Code, this dark electronic-style soundtrack contains all 17 tracks of the original soundtrack plus two bonus tracks! Head AS Code: This is the original soundtrack composed by DomDominator, with lyrics by Ace Macho. Game Description: In the original Head AS Code, you play as four people tasked with taking on the undead. Each character has his own specialties, from traditional healing to death rays, but your goal is the same: to push through the game's sixteen levels and rescue Leaden and his girlfriend. You must overcome foes, navigate traps, and use your different skills to stay alive. Reviews for Head AS Code 10/10 Amazing soundtrack This soundtrack is amazing! The hardest and yet most relaxing soundtrack I have ever heard. Every track fits perfectly in the game, especially the sample instrumental for each of the four main characters, "The Aldator", "The One-Eyed Man", "The Spiritless Man" and "The Beast", which you get to hear a couple of times. Without a doubt, this soundtrack is my new favourite musical soundtrack. It is also very light, which makes the soundtrack perfect to listen to before going to bed, or at any other time of the day really. It does not make much sense since it is an electronic-style soundtrack, but all the more reason it is still one of my favourite. The instruments used are perfect, they don't become annoying during the game, just like I don't find the track 'Voice of the Moon' to be annoying at all. To conclude, the soundtrack is great and definitely worth the money (I bought it on the Bandcamp page and it is worth the investment). I also recommend you to buy the sound effect pack from the same website, it is also great. 10/10 Amazing soundtrack This soundtrack is amazing! The hardest and yet most relaxing soundtrack I have ever heard. Every track fits perfectly in the game, especially the sample instrumental for each of the four main characters, "The d41b202975

Head AS Code Soundtrack For PC

Head AS Code, also called Heads Co-op, is a cooperative first-person-shooter, where up to 4 players with different roles participate. The game takes place in a post apocalyptic wasteland where the toxic rainforest is slowly killing the world. The American headquarters of the global chemical conglomerate "Head AS Code" are completely empty, and there is only one force left, to find the head of the corporation and the head of the player himself, located at the end of the maze. But to find it, he needs to escape the toxic rainforest first.
