Recently, Henry Cavill successfully regained his Superman identity in an upcoming 'Man of Steel' sequel by training and showing off a world class physique by buffing up for his role. While male fans can't wait to see what he has in store for them in the upcoming blockbuster, fans of females all around the world are also excited to see what he looks like in women's clothing. His New Zealand fans have taken a page from his book by creating a very accurate cyber style of his outfit similar to how he looked back in 2006. The costume and boots were created by Geoff Lundergan, a typical New Zealand fashion designer. The costume has a tight form fitting bodysuit, a feathered cape and knee high boots. The reason why Geoff went with this outfit was because the classic superhero has similar looking attire with that of a superhero. Geoff's costume has a similar look to the outfit that Dave Bautista played, but far more sleek and sexy. The costume was made with a metallic skin base that was then painted black with gold accents to bring out Cavill's silver hue. Out of all of the many outfits that Cavill could choose from, he decided to go with the outfit that his fans would most likely love. He goes with his famous cape and blue briefs for his costume, which is a norm for male superheroes. The outfit has been dressed to hit the mark in terms of the looks of Superman. In Geoff's layout, Cavill's blue briefs come to the knee

The Mutant Football League (MFL) is a sport in which slow, ugly mutants use only their mutated football for a simple reason: to smash into each other until one of them breaks. With no pads or helmets, or even rules as such, any contact is legal. Boos and curses are not unheard of. It's a sport for the deprived. This is the official Mutant Football League, a free to play game inspired by the real sport, but the law of the real sport has no place in our game. Except that we have a lot more hitting and breaking. But then, we have the rules and everything. If you are into realism and want to experience in full force the full action of a mutant football team, then the Mutant Football League is the game for you. Disclaimers: *The Mutant Football League is a free game. No in-app purchases or additional content. Additional content will be available as free content updates. * "Warning: This is an adult game for players ages 18+. There is no violence, gore, or cursing." Terms of Service:

===== Mutant Football League (MFL) is a free to play football simulator, in which users build and manage their own teams while competing against others in a wide variety of game types. Mutant Football League's aim is to create a friendly, welcoming atmosphere where players can form and play their own MFL team and enjoy the sport without worry or judgement. Mutant Football League is not a sport played by humans, and MFL's rules do not apply to humans. Instead, MFL is a game where teamwork and strategy are the most important factors in winning - Player stats, positioning, close formations, and the abilities of one's players create a unique gameplay experience. Anything that is 100% unscripted and can be controlled by users (including reckless tackles, botched punts, and dropped passes) will add to the sense of realism in the sport. Mutant Football League is free to play. As players progress through the levels, they accumulate experience, levels and players to customize their own teams. Every player in a team receives a rating based on their performance (including stats such as completion percentage and yards gained), and teams can be compared with the same stats by other players or the league at large. Mutant Football League is played through virtual digital consoles that can be accessed directly from a player's device
