Sans Frontieres 16e Cahier - Revue Goggo. Introduction - Sans Frontieres 16e Cahier - Revue Goggo. Sans Frontieres 16e Cahier - Pdf - Liz Wiley (@LizWiley) is a founding member of the Muslim American Women's Policy & Leadership Council, which advocates for social justice through our communities of faith. She is also a contributing writer for the politics section of Religion Dispatches. Follow her on Twitter @LizWiley. It's not just the expanding Muslim population that must be included in the ongoing rethinking of counter-radicalization programs. Our broader society's understanding and perception of Islam and its place in society will affect the very fabric of our religious community. To this end, the U.S. State Department has announced a revised model for countering radicalization. While the U.S. government's weight continues to be concentrated on Muslim communities, a more significant shift in focus will take place by allowing mainstream Americans to become partners with Muslim communities to address challenges that flow from Islamic beliefs and religious practices. The State Department and its partner, the Center for Religious Freedom (CRF), believe this new approach will generate greater awareness and understanding within society at large, including non-Muslim communities, about what it means to be Muslim. It will, they believe, create more effective alliances at
