I have tried searching on Google and i did not find the solutions, will be a real help if you know.

to the Three Rivers District as part of the Texas Clean Air Act. The new structure, designed by John Wachsman, opened to the public in 1998 and continues to operate as the Three Rivers Center. The building was listed on the National Register of Historic Places on February 20, 2015. Transportation The Center for Energy Efficiency is located one block from the intersection of Interstate 10 (I-10) and U.S. Route 59 (US 59) in downtown Austin. The Weil family, owners of John Deere, originally built the tract home along State Highway 73 (SH 73) in 1962. The tract home was moved to the location on SH 73 when John Deere's new tractor dealership opened nearby in 1963. In 1963, John Deere negotiated with Texas Tech to give the tract home to the University in exchange for land along the Belt Line. The university demolished the home in 1984 and replaced it with a two-story brick building with a six-room fireplace. The weil family sold the tract home to Texas Tech and the building is now the headquarters of The Trucking Company, the campus's freight transportation company. The tract home is also the headquarters of the Petroleum Marketing Association of America.
