Touring with Perry South, represented my first time in a state of Israel and my first time in the Middle East, so it was up to me to be the tour guide, see the sights and find out more about this place that I now call home. When I started my quest to figure out where I wanted to work, I asked myself the following questions: What am I good at? What would I enjoy doing? What would I pay myself? What would I do every day? What would I do on my days off? After all this thinking, I came to the conclusion that working at the Beat Hotel, in Amsterdam, would be the best job for me, I'd get paid what I'm worth, spend my days doing what I love and have a drink or two
